

Elegant 5-coloring of the edges of the icosahedron

Like-colored edges coincide with the ends of three mutually perpendicular rectangles. Each distinct combination of colors occurs in opposite sequence on the boundaries of two opposite triangles. Automorphisms of the icosahedron permute the colors.

